

"Help Us Help You"

A survey that will help Bonnie Obremski, an independent online journalist, find out what Northfield businesses need and who can meet those needs. The results will be published in a story on LocallyGrownNorthfield.org. For more info, see

RepJBonnie.wordpress.com

I will collect the survey on Thursday after 12 p.m. on Jan. 22, 2009. Alternatively, you can email me your responses at Bonnie.Obremski@gmail.com with the subject

"survey," or call 774-272-0730. Answers can be as brief or long as you like, any information helps. Thank you!

Name and title (if you prefer to be anonymous, say so or just use your first name):

Name and location of business (again, you can be anonymous, or indicate the kind of business you own):

Contact information:

What, if any, business-related organizations are you a member of?

If you are a member, please say why you joined, what the organization does for you and the level of satisfaction you have with that organization.

How can organizations or other members of the Northfield community help businesses in the city?

How has the national economic situation and recent advances in technology, such as the Internet, affected your business, if at all?

Out of all the ways you try and promote your business, what produces the most results?

Other information that could help me find out more about how Northfield could improve its businesses:
